

Thickman Faculty Lecture Series

Understanding the Electoral College

Presented by

Michael Thomas

- ◆ History of the Electoral College- Why did the Founders write this into the U.S. Constitution?
- ◆ Historical Elections for President of the United States- Historical Events when Presidential Candidates lose the popular vote, but win the Electoral College
- ◆ Contemporary Issues with the Electoral College
- ◆ Why does Wyoming need the Electoral College

WHEN: Thursday, October 22, 2020

TIME: 7:00 PM

Zoom Webinar at www.sheridan.edu/lectures

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Sheridan College Foundation (307) 675-0700

This lecture series is funded by the Thickman Lecture Endowment.

Michael Thomas serves as adjunct faculty at Sheridan & Gillette College teaching History of Wyoming and Wyoming Government. He holds an Associate's degree in History from Casper College, a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Secondary Education and Social Studies from the University of Wyoming, as well as a Master of Arts degree in American History from American Public University. He is a public school teacher with ten years of teaching experience.